You may apply up to 2 courses from other departments toward the 10 required courses, with prior approval from the Vice Chair of Undergraduate Studies. With approval, an independent-study course (ELTS 195, 197, or 199) may count for 1 course (up to 4 units), excluding the capstone and the 3 core courses. All 10 upper-division courses must be taken for a letter grade, with a minimum GPA of 2.0 maintained.

Students interested in Danish, Norwegian, and Finnish language instruction may enroll in these courses at other UC campuses through distance learning, and may petition to apply these courses to the major preparation requirements.
